8. In the case of dangerous trades:—

(i) Every Manager shall so store his goods as to admit of free ingress or egress for the removal of the goods for quenching a fire, if any.

(ii) He shall not cause or suffer any cover made of combustible material to be erected or placed over or adjoining any such goods.

(iii) He shall at all times keep the premises clean and dry to the satisfaction of the President or the Vice-President.

(iv) He shall not allow smoking or the introduction of fire or open light into the premises mentioned in bye-law 2 (a) and he shall always store sufficient quantity of water and sand to quench the fire, if any.

(v) He shall carry out his trade in such a way as not to make his premises a source of danger or nuisance to the persons residing in or resorting to the neighbourhood.

(vi) He shall comply with any requisition from the President or the Vice-President contained in a notice for the total or partial removal from the premises of the aforesaid goods or the removal of any other combustible materials not intended for sale or for rectifying an error or omission in attending to the above provisions.

9. In the case of offensive trades as defined in bye-law 2 (b):—

(i) Every Manager shall confine his trade to be carried on strictly in the place shown in the license.

(ii) He shall cause all materials received for the purpose of his trade to be stored when not required for immediate use in such a manner as to prevent the emission of noxious or injurious effluvia therefrom.

(iii) He shall adopt the best practicable means of rendering innocuous all vapours emitted during the process of the trade either by proper ventilation or other suitable means.

(iv) He shall keep the floor of the premises in good order and repair so as to prevent the absorption of any liquid filth or refuse or any noxious or injurious matter which may fall or be deposited upon.

(v) He shall provide the premises with proper drains and shall always keep them in good order.

(vi) He shall cause the premises to be cleaned at the close of every working day.

(vii) He shall not allow any refuse or waste matters not intended for any further process of the trade, which are likely to be a source of danger or nuisance to be deposited in or around the premises, but shall have them removed daily to a place approved by the President or the Vice-President especially for the purpose.

(viii) He shall adopt such other precautions as are necessary to minimise the danger or nuisance to the public from the use to which such premises are put.

(ix) He shall comply with any requisitions from the President or the Vice-President contained in a notice for rectifying any error or omission in attending to the above provisions and for promoting the health of the persons employed in such trades.

(x) The President shall have power to suspend or withdraw a license granted for dangerous or offensive trade whenever he deems such a course necessary in the interests of the convenience and safety of the public generally or of the persons inhabiting or resorting to the neighbourhood of the premises covered by such license or whenever the conditions of a license are not obeyed.
